

P R O C L A M A T I O N

- WHEREAS, This nation was established to bring the light of liberty, the fires of freedom and the wisdom of justice for all children of God to share, each according to his right as a loyal American citizen, and
- WHEREAS, We have charted the unknown seas of the past during our historical saga with the realization our national objectives of yesteryear will be enhanced and broadened to encompass the hand of friendship to newly-emerging countries and peoples in their search for standing in the family of nations, and
- WHEREAS, Each American feels a kinship to his neighbor whether he dwell next door or in the White House when the Ship of States unfurls its sails upon a new journey in a troubled world,
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the Sovereign State of South Dakota, do hereby request the people of the Sovereign State of South Dakota to set aside a day of their choice according to their religious beliefs for the purposes of supplication during any of the days of the Inauguration Day week end and that said day be known as for all the world to note we express our unity behind the 35th President of the United States, John Fitzgerald Kennedy and the United States of America.

Signed this 17th day of January 1961.
